CLEAN UP BELIZE CAMPAIGN 2010

CLEAN UP BELIZE

A Nationwide effort towards improving Belize's Local and Global Image

BELIZE CITY, Friday, November 26, 2010:

Old Belize's Jungle Pavillion, located at 5 miles on the Western Highway, Belize City was the venue this Friday evening, November 26 for the final event marking the culmination of the first Clean Up Belize Campaign 2010 and the awarding of ten thousand, five thousand and three thousand dollars respectively to the top three winning municipalities as well as two other cash prizes of one thousand dollars each for the Best Song/Jingle/Advertisement and Best Individual Community Effort.

After the various results, spanning an eight month period, were evaluated by the distinguished panel of six judges, the results were announce as follows:

First prize for the cleanest community went to Benque Viejo Town.

Second and third prize in same category were awarded to Corozal and San Ignacio/Santa Elena Towns respectively.

The Best Song/Jingle/Advertisement award was captured by Dangriga for the Serious Clean Up Campaign song by SUPA G. The Best Individual Community Effort went to Punta Gorda for the Tidal Waste Crisis causing litter along their shores this past July where over 1,500 bags of garbage and 25 trucks loads of logs was removed.

The cash award was intended to bring out and engage that competitive spirit among all municipalities countrywide. Most importantly however, it was intended to acknowledge that most municipalities, in light of limited resources at their disposal, will allow for these cash awards to used to sustain the momentum.

The project, under the patronage of Mrs. Kim Simplis Barrow, wife of Prime Minister Dean Barrow, began with the brining together of diverse groups of individuals representing the public, private and NGO sectors through the efforts of Aldebaran, an NGO focusing on marine research and education teaming up with Love FM and its strong history of promoting civic pride and social responsibility.

Apart from Aldebaran and Love FM, other sponsors include the Belize Tourism Board and the Protected Areas Conservation Trust (PACT)

The 2010 campaign was geared towards establishing a nationwide clean up campaign focusing on all nine municipalities countrywide with the objective of raising public awareness and collaboration in doing their part for a cleaner Belize and instill in all that the campaign must be a sustained effort and not just a one time event. ate all the top winners in the campaign.

The campaign also included the incorproation of various Embassies to allow for the provision technical support and expertise in the areas of environment logistics and other resources as well as to foster that general contact. In this regards the municipalities/embassies were teamed up as follows:

Corozal Town, Embassy of China (Taiwan).

Orange Walk Town - Embassy of El Salvador.

San Pedro Town - Embassy of Guatemala.

Belize City - Embassy of Brazil.

City of Belmopan - , US Embassy
San Ignacio/Santa Elena Towns - British High Commission

Benque Viejo Town - Embassy of Mexico.

Dangriga Town - Embassy of Costa Rica.

Punta Gorda - Embassy of Venezuela.

The primary objective of the campaign was to increase the civic pride and self awareness of the environment as well as to encourage communities as well as the public and private sector to work together for a cleaner Belize and to provide sustainable strategies of continue a lifestyle of heightened civic pride.

Organizers of the event took the opportunity to express gratitude to all participating embassies for the contribution and support which resulted in a truly successfully campaign.

The campaign was a learning experience as organizers of the observed and recorded several obstacles along the way, some of which, in addition to the presence of litter, included the unsightly state of many building and private land within municipal boundaries. There was also the issue of the carless dumping of garbage by private and corporate citizens many of whom can afford garbage collection and disposal services. The organizers also observed the acute absence of designated dumpsites especially in smaller communities. They also observed widespread complacency and lack of civic pride with the general view that garbage thrown on the streets and in other public areas will be taken care of by someone else. There was also the matter of derelict vehicle and garbage lined costal shores.

Some of the recommended solution to address the various obstacle indentified include:

- a) the provision of more garbage receptacles at strategic location within communities;
- b) The timely collection of garbage;
- c) Beautification of improvement of public spaces;

d) Sustained effort for the removal and disposal of derelict vehicles;

e) the public maintenance of street side and drains and the private maintenance of private lawns;

f) organizing regular community clean up days;

g) enforcement of Anti-Litter laws targeting violator in publics areas and on public transport;

h) An intensive civic pride educational outreach program in schools;

i) providing relevant information to the public with a view to increase awareness and compliance with existing anti-litter laws.

Apart from its Patron, Kim Simplis Barrow, Patron, the Campaign Committee includes: Stefanie Lupp, Managing Director; Christy Mastry, Campaign Director and Directors Rene Villanueva, Francis Woods and Lindsay Garbutt.

"My Father Would Never Be In Any Drug Trafficking" Daughter defends accused drug trafficking police father

BY Leila Middleton;

I'm writing you this letter as one of the daughters of the accused police officers in the drug plane incident. From what I've heard, you people seem to know my father better than I do.

Hello people! These men are SUSPECTED to be connected, so why are you all (news, internet, radios, newspaper, media, general public) throwing around their names like that.

My father would never be in any drug trafficking for any reason. Hey! I have a question.

Why are the police trying with all their might to pin this on these innocent men?

What happened to the pilot of the plane? Why aren't we hearing anything about him/her? I would try harder to find him/her than accuse others.

What happened to innocent until proven guilty or giving people the benefit of the doubt?

What I've noticed is that the media and the general population are the judges, jurors, and executioners. That's not fair! Has our country become that judgmental?

A person's name should not be slandered at the fault of the ill-equipped police department.

I'm just saying, why do people blow situations out of proportion? They were charged already. Can't they be released now? I wonder if people would throw around names like that if it were their family members being accused. What if your son or daughter saw your name being scandalized all across the news, radio, and newspapers. Think Belize! Take into consideration the families being hurt because of this.

In The Absence Of A Define Code Of Ethics, Belize's Major Political Parties Discipline Ministers Differently

By: Wellington C. Ramos

Recently in the country of Belize a Minister of State in the Ministry of Works, Hon. Edmund Castro who represents the Belize District Rural North constituency as a member of the United Democratic Party (UDP), was stripped of his portfolio and from the cabinet, by the Prime Minister, Hon. Dean Barrow.

Belize media alleges that Castro was removed because he was given about $48,000.00 by a Belizean American woman in return for his assistance to secure a large parcel of land in his constituency.

If these allegations are true, then the act committed by Mr. Castro would be considered corruption, a criminal offense under the laws of Belize.

Belizeans do not have to give any Minister or Public Officer any money or gift to receive land in Belize because it would constitute bribery or corruption.

I have been monitoring Belizean politics for forty years now and I cannot point to any instance when the People's United Party was in power where their Prime Minister fired a Minister of government for any form of misconduct. They would only reshuffle their cabinets when they have disagreements over policy issues.

This move by Prime Minister Barrow, is his third disciplinary action against members of his cabinet.

The first to be expelled from cabinet was the Hon. Marcel Cardona, Member for Orange Walk East Area and former Minister of Sports, Youth and Culture.

Then there was the Hon. Juan Coy, Area Representative for Toledo East and Minister of State in the Ministry of Rural Development and now it's the Hon. Edmund Castro.

This is an important development in the history of Belizean politics. The Prime Minister has indicated that transparency is to be the hallmark in his government and if any Minister is found to be engaged in corrupt activities he will not hesitate to take immediate corrective action.

The Constitution of Belize was recently amended to give Belizeans the power to initiate a petition process for the recall Area Representatives when they are not performing to acceptable standards.

The People's United Party and the other opposition parties in Belize, can now go into these constituencies and encourage the residents to start a petition process for a Recall Election.

If successful, it would increase the chances for members of the Prime Minister's party to lose their seats in the House of Representatives and the majority his party holds would shrink.

They would also accuse the Prime Minister's party of being a corrupt group despite the actions he has taken to make them believe otherwise. For the future of our country, I see this as a first step in dealing with the problem of corrupt Ministers and people in Belizean politics. This first step must now be strengthening with the passage of firm Ethics Laws to govern the actions of all Belizean politicians from the Village Council level, to municipal councils all the way up to the national level right up to the Prime Minister's office.

In the last constitutional amendments process, I asked in an article that we consider making the position of Attorney General a separate and independent office from the political process. It would be a five year term like all the other offices and any Belizean citizen lawyer who has practiced law for three or more years would qualified to run for this office. The names of those contesting the position would appear on the ballots in every constituency nationwide and the person with the most votes would become the Attorney General of Belize.

To avoid any undermining of the Attorney General's office and functions, a constitutional provision would stipulate the annual budget for the office of the Attorney General.

The nationally elected Attorney General would be the people's lawyer and be given broad ranges of investigative and prosecution powers under the jurisdiction of the Governor General of Belize Her Majesty's representative.

Drafting the Belize Code of Ethics for all Ministers, Civil Servants and other government employees will then become the Attorney General's responsibility. In most states in the United States this is the function of the Attorney General and I am convinced it would work in Belize and other former English speaking colonies in the Caribbean and the world.

Belize and Caribbean countries do not have a system in place that is effective in dealing with corrupt Ministers and Civil Servants.

When the need to discipline and punish Ministers and Civil Servants arise it is mostly done on a discretionary basis. With favoritism and preference, some people will be punished and others

Customer Service Rules Everyone Needs To Know

By: Jason Durran
jason@xtremebusinessworld.com

xtremebusinessworld.com presents “Point # 2 of the five simple rules of customer service gurudom that everyone needs to know”

Here’s the next stage of business tips that will keep your customers coming back for more.

Point # 2)

Say something to everyone that comes anywhere near you.

People hate waiting. There’s an insightful comment. Actually, it’s more than that! It’s an observation that is pretty universal no matter where you are.

When you are reaching out for that edge to pull your clients in, your people need to know that you want them for yourself. If someone comes in through the doors of your establishment, greet them. Don’t wait till they do the greeting, usually if that happens, they are looking for someone to help them with something, and they are not going to be thrilled at that point.

If you see someone, say “Hi there, how are you doing?”

Say something that will imply that you are interested in them, and something that will illicit a response from your potential client.

As much as people hate waiting, people love to feel connected. If you want the people that you come in contact with in your business life to become your people, be the first to make the connection.

When people feel like someone cares about how they feel, and is willing to give them what they want, they will generally search those implied providers out, and will stick to them. Just think, by greeting someone and making them feel connected, you are providing social security....Who knew?

If you have any comments please forward them to jason@xtremebusinessworld.com

Ed Note; Jason informed that he holds a Bachelor’s Degree from the University of Manitoba in Canada and a Masters in Business Administration majoring in international marketing from Corllins University of California, USA.

Our school’s Special Education Teacher, Ms Celia Monroy, parents of the students and I accompanied our athletes to the game.

Government Gives Cane Farmers One Million Dollars As It Prepares To Disburse The Ten Million Dollars Loan To The Sugar Company

CITY OF BELMOPAN, Cayo, Thursday, December ,2, 2010:

The Government Press Office today informed that in keeping its promise to support the cane farmers in their time of need, the Government of Belize, on Monday, November 29, 2010, made available a one million dollars grant to the Belize Sugar Industry Control Board to assist cane farmers in meeting their immediate financial obligations.

Last week the National Assembly adopted a Resolution which authorized the Government of Belize to lend $10 million to the Belize Sugar Industry (BSI) to provide working capital for meeting the outstanding third payment to cane farmers in respect of the 2010 crop season, and for operational capital and factory refurbishment. One of the conditions of the Agreement is that the Belize Sugar Industries first obtain waivers from its existing creditors in order to assume this additional debt obligation.

The $10 million is ready for disbursement but the Government is now waiting on the said bank waivers before releasing the funds to BSI.

The government has no control over this process but remains optimistic that it will end positively. As had been painstakingly explained by the Prime Minister, BSI cannot draw down on the loan before the waivers are received because that will trigger a loan default of BSI which could lead to immediate foreclosure and collapse of the industry.

It is irresponsible, therefore, for the Opposition to call for an immediate release of the loan funds to BSI so that the third payment can be made to the cane farmers before the loan conditions are met as this would precipitate a default by BSI. It is recalled that the Leader of the Opposition supported the Resolution with all its conditions.

The government regrets the statement made by the Opposition as it is unhelpful in a time where there is need for national unity. The government is keenly aware of how critical it is for the survival of the sugar cane industry and is doing all in its power to save the industry for current and future generations.

Understanding Parenthood

1. If it was going to be easy, it never would have started with something called labor!
2. Shouting to make your children obey is like using the horn to steer your car, and you get about the same results.
3. The smartest advice on raising children is to enjoy them while they are still on your side.
4. Avenge yourself -- live long enough to be a problem to your children.
5. Parents: People who bare infants, bore teenagers, and board newlyweds.
6. The joy of motherhood: What a woman experiences when all the children are finally in bed.
7. Life's golden age is when the kids are too old to need babysitters and too young to borrow the family car.
8. Any child can tell you that the sole purpose of a middle name is

- so he can tell when he's really in trouble.
9. There are three ways to get something done: Do it yourself, hire someone to do it, or forbid your children to do it.
  10. Adolescence is the age when children try to bring up their parents.
  11. Cleaning your house while your children are at home is like using a towel to dry up the driveway during a rainstorm.
  12. A blessing is to be only half as wonderful as my child thought I was when he was small, and half as stupid as this same child, now a teenager, thinks I am.
  13. Adolescence is the age at which children stop asking questions because they know all the answers.
  14. An alarm clock is a device for awakening people who don't have small children.

Four Bandits With Two Guns Continue To Make Successful Hits In The West

SAN IGNACIO TOWN, Cayo Wednesday, December 1, 2010:

A group of four masked robbers, armed with at least a 9mm pistol and a point 38 revolver, have thus far been able to remain ahead of San Ignacio police as they appear to be the same group pulling off a series of successful robberies within the community.

The latest victims are two Chinese Belizean businessmen from the village of Bullet Tree Falls, Cayo.

Preliminary reports indicate that at around 9:30 pm on Wednesday, December 1, 2010, just as the shopkeepers were preparing to close for the day, the four bandits stormed into Maxwell Shop and demanded money. One of them armed with a pistol and the another with a revolver, entered the store and took hold of shopkeepers, Gua Lian Wu and Xia Yu Luo, both 42 year-old Chinese Belizeans and after pistol whipping them in the head, they forced the victims to an upstairs section of the building where, fearing for their lives, the shopkeepers handed over all the cash in sight amounting to about $700 as well as an undisclosed amount of Digicell and Smart telephone cards. Cash and cards in hand, the attackers ran out of the store and disappeared into the darkness.

The injured shopkeepers were rushed to the San Ignacio Community Hospital where the police met them. They were treated for cut wounds to the head and later released.

As these robbers continue on the prowl, police is asking anyone with information on these four bandits to please contact Crimes Investigation Branch (CIB) personnel at the police station in San Ignacio Town.
