complexion were dropped off in front of the store by a green Ford Escort car with Belize City license plates. The two persons reportedly walked away from the store, across the highway and when they reemerged, they were wearing masks. One of them was reportedly armed with a handgun. They both rushed towards the store and, without asking any question, fired a first shot at Zhong He Lei who was sitting on an empty plastic crate, at his usual spot, at the entrance to the store.

The two assailants then rushed further into the store where the gunman fired four other shots at the other two Chinese and a female employee. Upon seeing the action unfolding, customers nearest to the door ran out and away from the incident while those inside the store took refuge among the stock in the far back portion of the store.

As the gunman fired the other shots, the unarmed accomplice reportedly walked behind the counter where he emptied the cash contents of the drawer into a bag he carried. They both ran out the store just as a Ford Ranger truck, like the type used by the police, was exiting a feeder road just across the Western Highway in front of the store. The Ford Ranger turned eastwards onto the Western Highway as if heading towards Belize City. A bullet hole in the front door on the driver's side of the Ford Ranger bears evidence that a single shot was fired at it, fortunately neither the driver nor the passenger were hurt.

The recovery of five expended 9 millimeter casings from the scene is leading investigators to believe that the weapon used was a 9 millimeter pistol being the kind of weapon that automatically ejects its casings after being fired.

Police reports the detention of several persons of interest; however an arrest is yet to be made as the investigation continues. While reiterating the strict confidential treatment of all information received, investigators are appealing to anyone with information that could assist in the investigation to please come forward.

Belizeans Celebrate 30 Years of Independence But Major Challenges Still Lie Ahead

By: Wellington C. Ramos

This September the 21st, 2011 will make 30 years since Belize became independent from Great Britain but Belize still have major challenges ahead that they are grappling with such as; crime, gangs, political victimization, drugs, poverty, unequal distribution of wealth, lot, land, nationalism, dual citizenship rights and the Guatemalan dispute. All these issues continue to plague Belize and make it difficult for our country to develop rapidly. Belizeans are not as nationalistic as the Jamaicans are to their country. One of the reasons for this is because Guatemala is still claiming Belize and some Belizeans think that this claim will remain an everlasting dispute until we give Guatemala some land. Another reason, is that there are many Belizeans who are trying to obtain a piece of lot or land and haven't gotten any despite all the efforts they have made to obtain them. Yet, they are witnessing foreigners coming into their country taking, squatting and purchasing lands to live and do farming. People identify themselves with land and when they have it, they will be more than willing to put their lives on the line for it. Our government should now begin the process to make sure that every natural born Belizean be given a piece of land so that he can live with his or her family and grow food to support them. This will also increase Belizeans nationalism because they will have something tangible to attach themselves to.

I left Belize to come and live in the United States thirty-three years ago. When I first arrived in New York City, there was a group called the "Freedom Committee" that was being chaired by Mr. Compton Fairweather. This group held weekly Sunday meetings at the basement of a Methodist Church on Ocean Avenue in Brooklyn. Along side of him were his Officers;

Muriel Laing, Walford Young, Derrick Staine, Leotin Staine-Lewis, Mary Stuart-Flowers, Mr. Trapp and several others. The room was packed with mostly elderly people. These Officers would give speeches about their lives when they were living in Belize and how beautiful Belize is. The main purpose of this group was to make sure that Belize remain a free country with all its territory intact. At the ending of the meeting, I would go around and engage in discussions with some of the people in the audience and to my surprise, many of these people were not prepared to go home and some of them had no intentions to return to Belize and live. In addition to this organization, there was a "Telephone Belize News" where Belizeans could call every Tuesday at midnight to get updated news, entertainment events and death announcements. Belizeans from all over the country looked forward to this day to make their telephone calls. After years of service to the community, Mr. Fairweather retired and went home to Belize to live. The association and the Belize News no longer exist and Belizeans are still talking about the news and have not done anything to replace or upgrade it.

Prior to the Independence of Belize, the two main political parties in Belize held different positions. The United Democratic Party wanted independence with a defense guarantee from Great Britain. The People's United Party wanted independence with or without the guarantee and felt that with world opinion on their side Belize will survive. The Prime Minister of Great Britain at the time Margaret Thatcher, wanted to get rid of most of Britain's overseas territories. She felt that the countries created a huge financial burden to the British government and its people. The Belize Prime Minister at the time, the Honorable George Cadle Price was told by the British that Britain will leave their troops in Belize for an indefinite period of time. A couple years after, the British government started to withdraw their forces out of Belize and the Guatemalans started to reclaim Belize up to this day.

Today, Belizeans are living with this constant threat by Guatemalans who cross the border at will and come into Belizean territory and occupy lands to establish new villages. In addition, they trespass on Belizean soil to steal Mayan artifacts and other valuables from the country. The Guatemalan military does nothing to stop their

The Belize Tourism Board Green Team, North Ambergris Caye & Middle Island Neighborhood Watch and the San Pedro Town Board continues cleanup campaign in Northern San Pedro

Belize City, Belize – September 12, 2011 – Saturday, September 3, 2011, witnessed the execution of the second of a series of cleanup campaigns planned for Northern Ambergris Caye. Carried out under the aegis of the Belize Tourism Board (BTB)'s Green Team, the SPTB, and North Ambergris Caye & Middle Island Neighborhood Watch, Saturday's initiative tackled/addressed the garbage situation that lined the road from Capricorn Resort up to Journey's End.

With the large amount of household garbage, construction waste, plastics, metals, and even household appliances found along the road, the team after half day of (nonstop) work, hauled away four truckloads of 55 gallon garbage bags (of pollutants/waste found in the area).

All the partners in making this initiative a success would like to extend a heartfelt "thank you" to all those who contributed to the campaign's success;

- Bob Campbell/Indigo Resort
- Mario of Belizean Reef
- Scott and Jody Harnish - NACNW
- Tammy Peterson - Clean Team Motivator
- Nano Gurero - Town Councilor
- Severo Gurero - Town Councilor
- Fidel Ancona – Road Project Consultant

The work continues on September 17 where the team will focus on the area from Indigo up north. In addition, the SPTB will also establish weekly garbage pickup of thrash on North Ambergris Caye. Mr. Severo Guerrero noted "We invite other members of the community to keep Ambergris Caye clean and dispose of garbage in the appropriate manner. This means residents, developers and visitors as well."

citizens from crossing the border to come into Belize. The Belize and Guatemalan governments signed an agreement in the year 2008, to make efforts to send their border dispute to the International Court of Justice. In this agreement, both countries pledged to conduct a referendum in their respective countries to ratify the agreement. If any of these two countries fail to ratify it, then the whole process will be stalled. The Guatemalan congress just recently ratified it after the Belize government did so months ago. It will be up to these two governments, to now bring this agreement to their people for a referendum vote. Both countries will be having elections soon and whether these governments would like to bring this controversial issue to a vote by their people is still left to be seen. In the mean time Belizeans will be jumping and parading all over the country this year but when the jumping up and parades are finished, Belize will still be in the same position they were in before they celebrated this year's independence.

Belizean nationalism can only come through implementing an on-going nationalism program to educate our children and people. First, they must be proud to be Belizeans and have reasons to state why being a Belizean is a lot better than being anything else. For me, I am proud to be a Belizean because this is the country of my birth. The American government can always take away the citizenship they gave to me but the Belize government cannot. In fact, I dear any Belizean to try an take away my citizenship rights and privileges. Belizeans living in the diaspora should start thinking positive about Belize especially with what they are experiencing living in America today. If they do not want to have anything to do with Belize, it might be a decision they will regret later on in their lives. I have placed my life on the line for Belize when I served in the Belize Police Force and have served in the American Armed Forces to prepare myself to defend my country if it is invaded by Guatemala or any other country on earth. While victory against the enemy might seem impossible, I would not be able to carry on with my life, if I stood there and did nothing to be invaded by another country. A true citizen is one who is willing to pick up arms and shed his or her blood in defense of his country. If we can get more Belizeans to think like this, our country would find a way to solve this dilemma. This year we heard from three of our country's Prime Minister and they touched on the poverty in Belize but failed to mention that the African Belizeans Garifuna and Creoles make up the majority of the poor and those who are leaving Belize to come to the United States. When the Garifuna people were engaged in farming and fishing back in the old days their poverty rate was low. Giving the citizens land to grow their own food will eliminate poverty in Belize and this is the time to implement such a desperately needed program for our idle black youths in Belize's cities and towns.

the Southern Regional Hospital in Dangriga where they were officially pronounced dead by the medical officer on duty.

Andrew was introduced into politics by his elder brother and mentor, Patrick. He was first elected to Belize City Hall in March 2009. Up to the time of his passing he held portfolio responsibility for Youth, Sports and After School Programs.

As his term in office was drawing to an end, he chose not to seek re-election but instead, again at his brother's insistence, to further his education and so his name did not appear on the September 4, 2011 ballot of those contesting the UDP convention for the Belize City Council. He was scheduled to depart the country in October to further his education abroad.

Funeral services for Andrew Faber will be held at St. John's Cathedral, on Friday, September 16, at 2:00 p.m.

We join in expressing sincere condolences to Minister Patrick Faber and the rest of the family at the sudden passing of the young and always vibrant Andrew as well as the other two ladies whose lives tragically ended on that faithful 13th day of September. We pray for the eternal resting of their souls.
