Will This One Be Likewise Swept Under The Rug?

In court earlier this week two men walked free from a joint murder charge. This is no longer news in Belize. It has become the rule rather than the exception.

What was the reason for these latest acquittals? The prosecution's chief witness stood up in the Supreme Court of Belize and told the learned Judge that the statement he gave to the police in March 2010 was completely different from the one he was given to refresh his memory in preparation for the trial.

The chief witness went even further by telling the Judge and the twelve member jury that the signature on the "different" statement was not his.

On the basis of this pronouncement, the defense presented a no-case submission which was upheld by the learned Judge and so both accused persons were acquitted of the capital charge of murder. Punto final, end of story; good night; next case; next acquittal.

Why is it that those with the responsibility and with the authority to take action against these serious irregularities, are either not seeing or just simply don't give a damn about what is happening as they are doing nothing to get to the very bottom of this matter.

The police department is the primary national investigation agency. The Crimes Investigation Branch of the Belize Police Department is the specialist unit in this field. How hard, we ask, is it to investigate this latest incident? Are they not seeing the serious black eye that is being cast upon the critical justice system of the nation?

The Commissioner of Police should order an immediate investigation into this matter. An investigation of this nature should be straightforward. It begins with the serious allegations made in court by the chief witness.

All written statements to the police are signed by the recording officer. The policeman who recorded the disputed statement should be immediately summoned. If the investigation reveal that the policeman in question invented the statement and forged the witness' signature as alleged by the witness, that policeman should be immediately dishonorably dismissed and criminally charged for forgery.

If the investigation revealed that the witness was not telling the truth, the witness should be brought before the Supreme Court to answer to a perjury charge and if found guilty must be sentenced accordingly.

To do nothing in this easily investigatable case with such far reaching negative ramifications on the all important justice system of the nation, leaves very much to be desired on the part of those with the authority and responsibility to protect life and property by preserving law and order in Belize.

Welcome was subsequently arrested and charged for drug trafficking.

In the absence of a magistrate in Benque Viejo, the accused was transported to San Ignacio where, on Monday, July 9, he appeared in the courtroom of Magistrate Narda Morgan where he pled not guilty to the charge. The prosecution objected to bail, the magistrate concurred with the request and the accused was remanded to the central prison in Hattieville. He will be appearing in court on Thursday, September 13, 2012.

While the search continues for the driver, police reports that a trace of the vehicle registration indicate that ownership of the Nissan was recently transferred from one owner to another.

The Passing Of Mr. George “Bibi” Waight

ST. IGNATIUS CHURCH, Santa Elena, Cayo, Wednesday, July 11, 2012:

A solemn 2:00 pm funeral service was held today at St. Ignatius Church in Santa Elena, Cayo for Mr. George “Bibi” Waight, 76, who passed away peacefully on Sunday, July 8, 2012.

Mr. Bibi or Beebo, as he was affectionately known, was the community’s butcher for over fifty years. In fact, that’s all we ever knew him as.

As life evolves in an ever changing world, the phasing out of the community meat market began as younger butchers started opening up their own meat shops around town, ultimately leaving one day, a few years ago, and in so doing, he retired from the trade and opened a small fruits, vegetable and treats shop on Carillo Puerto Avenue in Santa Elena which he operated until the time of his passing.

The Baron Bliss Meat Market has since been refurbished and in its place now stands a spanking new Public Library and Resource Center.

For those of us who grew up in the neighborhood, the passing of Mr. Bibi realizes the coming to an end of yet another generation of pioneering residents of Santa Elena.

Mr. Bibi is survived by his wife of many years, Mrs. Martha Waight.

“Fostering Literacy To Sustain National Development”

SAN IGNACIO, Cayo, Thursday, July 12, 2012:

The San Ignacio Public Library is this week hosting a group of 40 students from the twin towns in its annual summer program.

The program, facilitated by librarian Teresita Ulloa, is being held under the theme “Fostering Literacy to Sustain National Development”.

The event caters for children between the ages of 5 and 11. It runs from 9:30 am to 12:00 noon Monday through Friday.

The librarian informed that the primary objective of the program is to improve math and reading skills among the primary school students in attendance.

The program comprises two parts: The first week is a fun filled session for the children during which they read and discuss folklore stories. They should also improve knowledge by learning the history of the characters.

The second component, called the “SMART Program”, focuses on improving math and reading skills.

An additional feature of the program is the summer reading challenge also to be facilitated by the Library Service.

The participants are members

Your Horoscope & Lucky Number

ARIES:

March 22 to April 20

Make practical use of the thoughts you have synthesized over the last week. Stretch your boundaries and extend your wisdom to the people around you. This is a day to take action. Connect with your heart and move forward with your plans. We normally think of our hearts as being soft, tender, and vulnerable. Start thinking of your heart as being tough, strong, and adventurous. Lucky numbers:21, 40, 73.

TAURUS:

April 21 to May 21

This is an important week for you to make valuable connections with others. You will find yourself engaged in fast-paced, witty conversations and debates from which you can learn a great deal. You're good at seeing both sides of an issue, but the problem is that this can lead to indecisiveness and an inability to commit to anything. Choose a path today and stick to it. Lucky numbers:02, 34, 96.

GEMINI:

May 22 to June 21

It could be hard for you to get a handle on things this week. This isn't a day to find solutions. You are better off researching, asking questions, and gathering facts. Keep the channels of communication open, and don't try to pin anyone down for a solid answer. You will accomplish a great deal by keeping things active and light. Lucky numbers:32, 51, 89.

CANCER:

June 22 to July 23

You might come across strong opposition this week from someone who seems to want to cut straight through to your heart. In reality, this is a message reminding you to think about things in terms of the collective. Be aware of a greater perspective in which you see more than just your side of the issue. Talk to people you trust before making any major decisions. Lucky numbers:03, 22, 94.

LEO:

July 24 to August 21

Act on your instincts and you won't go wrong. You may need to give up a bit of control and put logical thinking aside for the week ahead. Let the wind take you where it wants you to go. You will find that it will be just about impossible to solidify any plans. You are better off exploring options and comparing notes with others. Don't pigeonhole yourself into one way of thinking. Lucky numbers:10, 29, 44.

VIRGO:

August 22 to September 21

This week you will find that you are the missing puzzle piece that people need in every situation. Engage in light conversation in social arenas and feel free to turn your charm up full blast. Get out of bed earlier than normal and get your blood pumping with a brisk walk or workout. Lucky numbers: 17, 55, 81.

LIBRA:
September 22
to October 23

You may find that people want to do a great deal of talking but not a great deal of feeling this week. Go ahead and put your emotions on the back burner and let your mind take over. Deal with facts and make sure your emotions don't interfere with the information you receive. Be conscious of your words. Lucky numbers: 20, 37, 71.

SCORPIO:
October 24 to
November 21

You should be able to evaluate your emotions from a very neutral this week. Use this opportunity to take action based on what you feel. Make sure your actions aren't reactionary and that you aren't simply acting rashly in response to someone else's hasty maneuvers. Think before you make any sudden moves. You will be amazed at what incredible things can develop if you simply use your head a bit first. Lucky numbers:19, 62, 85.

SAGITTARIUS:
November 22 to
December 21

If you are talking about another person this week, make sure you aren't saying anything that would be upsetting if they were standing right there. Be aware that what you say has a strong impact on the people around you and is likely to reach many more ears than you may think. Lucky numbers:11, 25, 59.

CAPRICORN:
December 22 to
January 20

It is important for you to take action this week. Trust yourself and your instincts. Oftentimes you will have the perfect advice for every situation and every other person except yourself. Talk things out and take definitive action. Hesitation causes delay. Lucky numbers: 12, 47, 86.

AQUARIUS:
January 21 to
February 19

You might find yourself a bit unfocused and confused about which way to go. The baffled look on your face isn't helping anyone else figure out how to help you. It may be time to let go and break some ties to things that no longer work for you. Feel good about extricating yourself from old habits that no longer serve you. Lucky numbers:08, 27, 33.

PISCES:
February 20
to March 21

It is important for you to get outside and feel the wind blowing. Reconnect with nature and be aware of the four elements. Take deep breaths and fill your lungs with this energizing life force. Imagine yourself on a mountaintop looking over a vast ocean below. Expand your awareness so that nothing escapes your attention. Keep your head clear and be open to new adventures. Lucky numbers: 41, 61, 90.

LOCAL BUILDING AUTHORITY

Ref: Death of Marco Tulio Polanco

Dear Sir,

On the July 8th issue of the STAR Newspaper, there is a note regarding the “Tragic passing of Marco Tulio Polanco.” This 42 year old labourer was crushed to death when a concrete step fell on him whilst taking off the form boards. The last sentence of the newspaper’s note is what leads me to address the issue. It says, “Police suspect no foul play classifying the incident as an accident”

Before I continue, let me quote the purpose of the Belize Building Act of 2003, being: “AN ACT to control building operations in the interest of public health and safety and to enable the introduction of regulations prescribing standards relating to the use of materials and methods of construction, repair, maintenance and demolition of buildings, and the control of building development; and to provide for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto”. Gazetted 1st. February, 2003.

From my standpoint, this is not an accident. It is a fully fledged “manslaughter by negligence.”

In first instance, Mr. Nelson Tillet, failed to secure a building permit in contravention with Section 13 of the Belize Building Act.

SISELBA (San Ignacio & Santa Elena Local Building Authority), made and inspection on the site on Monday July 2nd, and noted a series of grave construction errors that can be obvious to any one who knows nothing of construction. Improper use of steel, improper anchoring systems, improper footing details and improper concrete mix are what led to this unfortunate lost of live.

From all views, the Authority considers that should Mr. Tillet have submitted the proper drawings and obtained the relevant building permit, as mandated by law, and also hired a reliable contractor, this “accident” could have been avoided.

Question: “Accident, or Manslaughter by Negligence?”

For this reason, amongst many others, The Local Building Authority (SISELBA) insists that any person intending to build, extend or renovate any structure should secure their building permit as per the Belize Building Act.

Respectfully,
Juan A. Polanco

Jordanian MP Pulls Gun During Live TV Debate

While there has been much talk about what some of us rather quickly term as “Leaving of much to be desired in the conduct of local debates,” our reality is in fact light years behind that which happens in other parts of the globe.

The incident which occurred just this week in the Western Asian nation of Jordan, officially known as the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, jolts us to the realization that we are in fact still a nation of law, order and civic decency.

The incident unfolded this week live on Jordanian television Jo Sat when a Jordanian Member of Parliament (MP) pulled a gun on a political activist during a furious debate.

The MP Mohammed Shawabka, was debating political activist Mansour Sayf al-Din Murad on aspects of Jordanian politics including attitudes surrounding the uprising in Syria.

Mohammed Shawabka (R) with pistol in hand

Tension in the debate progressively escalated as Shawabka and Murad exchanged accusations of various crimes and deviancies.

Shawabka accused Murad of being on the payroll of the Syrian regime.

Murad countered that Shawabka worked for the Israeli Mossad intelligence agency. “You’re a Mossad agent,” Murad accused.

“You’re a big crook,” came the response from Shawabka.

The MP stood up, began screaming and pointed in the activist’s face as he sat opposite the MP, while the host of the program, Mohammed Habashneh, seated between them, desperately urged his guests to “calm down.”

The live broadcast showed the MP bending forward in his chair, pulling off the shoe from his right foot and threw it at the activist who ducked behind the desk and in the process knocking the desk over.

The MP then stood up and, with the host still in the middle, pulled a silver handgun from the waistband of his pants and briefly brandished it toward the activist, who walked toward him. The MP kept holding the gun.

The two men struggled, with the MP still holding the naked gun in his hand but not pointing it at the activist as the visibly panicked host struggled among the scattered furniture while attempting the keep the feuding men separate.

The two men would not be easily separated, and the brawl continued for several minutes before the public incident was taken off the air.

Why A Visa?

Mr. Gomez visited the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and asked about the documents he needed to travel to China on a business trip.

After a lengthy discussion about passports, the secretary reminded him that he needed a visa.

"Oh no I don't, I've been to China many times and never had to have one of those." rebutted Mr. Gomez

"Le me double check on that for you Mr. Gomez", said the secretary

A few minutes alter she returned and sure enough, his stay required a visa. "I have checked Mr. Gomez and I am assured that you certainly need a visa", responded the secretary.

Still unable to comprehend why he would need a visa Mr. Gomez argued, "Look, I've been to China four times and every time they have accepted my American Express!"

Same Name Different Guy

After directory assistance gave me my boyfriend's new telephone number, I dialed him -- and got a woman.

"Is Mike there?" I asked.

"He's in the shower," she responded.

"Please tell him his girlfriend called," I said and hung up.

When he didn't return the call, thirty mininutes later, I dialed again. This time a man answered. "This is Mike," he said.

"You're not my boyfriend!" I exclaimed.

"I know," he replied. "That's what I've been trying to tell my wife for the past half-hour."

Who Gets The Toy

Mr. Brown won a toy in a raffle. He called his children together to ask which one should have the toy.

"I am going to give this toy to the the most obedient?" he said.

"Then one who never talks back to mother? The one who does everything she says?"

Five small voices answered in unison: "Okay, Dad, you can have the toy."

Almost Nailed It Down

The principal is sitting at his desk inside his office when the telephone suddenly rings.

"Hello, this is Santa Elena Primary School," answers the principal.

"Hi. Jimmy won't be able to come to school all next week," replies the voice.

"Well, what seems to be the problem with him?"

"We are all going on a family vacation," says the voice, "I hope it is all right."

"I guess that would be fine," says the principal. "May I ask who is calling?"

"Sure. This is my father!"

Making An Advanced Investment

A small boy was looking at the red ripe tomatoes growing in the farmer's garden.

"I'll give you my two pennies for that tomato," said the boy pointing to a beautiful, large, ripe fruit hanging on the vine.

"No," said the farmer, "I get a dime for a tomato like that one."

The small boy pointed to a smaller green one, "Will you take two pennies for that one?"

"Yes," replied the farmer, "I'll give you that one for two cents."

"OK," said the boy, sealing the deal by putting the coins in the farmer's hand, "I'll pick it up in about a week."

There Is No Choclate Ice Cream

Alice walks up to the ice cream stand on Burns Avenue in San Ignacio and orders a chocolate ice cream CONE.

"There is no chocolate ice cream, We only have vanilla and strawberry" said the clerk.

She then asks for a PINT of chocolate ice cream. The clerk once again tells her that there is no chocolate ice cream, just vanilla and strawberry.

She then asks for a QUART of chocolate ice cream. The clerk once again tells her that there is no chocolate ice cream, only vanilla and strawberry.

She orders a HALF GALLON of chocolate ice cream. The clerk then asks her how she spells van as in vanilla.

"V-A-N" says Alice.

The clerk asks her how she spells straw as in strawberry.

"S-T-R-A-W" says Alice.

"And how do you spell freak as in chocolate?", asks the clerk.

Alice thinks for a moment and exclaims, "There is no freak in chocolate!!!!".

"That's exactly what I have been trying to tell you all along", responded the clerk.

Did You See The Ghosts in the Market?

By: Teresa Keller
Executive Director
Round the World with Us

Did anyone notice the ghoulish faces wandering through our market place last Saturday?

A group of 20 teenagers and adults held hands and walked solemnly through the otherwise bustling market. In sharp contrast to the cheery shoppers who were greeting their friends and neighbors, the teenagers wore T-shirts proclaiming "I'm Dead" in large red letters on the front and "Lost Forever from Drugs" on the back. Some of them had hand written messages about friends of theirs who had been killed by drug abuse or drunk drivers.

At one point, the teens called attention to themselves by lying as if dead on the hard ground of the market as rain continued to stream down on them. Spectators stared at the wet teens and wondered what they could be doing. Other teens handed out flyers explaining their mission.

14-year-old Bella Gagliardo approached one curious shopper to ask him if she would like to hear about what was going on. Bella explained that a friend of her mom's named Richard Evans had been hit and killed by a drunk driver at the age of 17. "It's a tragedy and I don't want it that to happen to anyone else," she said. The shopper nodded in serious agreement.

"Some people think if they try it, it isn't a big deal, but you never know when you might become addicted and get yourself into a lot of trouble," said another student.

15 year-old Naisy explained, "I was nervous about whether I would look like a fool in front of others, but I care about this issue and wanted to do something unique to call attention to the danger, so people would remember it. When I saw the shocked look on people's faces, I said to my teammates, 'we have succeeded!'"

17 year-old Loui interviewed several adults and asked their opinion as well as whether or not they would join with the teens to raise awareness, stop the sale of alcohol to minors and support the students as they plan activities for Drug Awareness week, which occurs every February.

"Everyone said that they cared deeply about the issue and that they will help us," says Loui. "I hope one of the first things they do is to talk to the owner of their favorite stores. Stopping the sale to minors seems an easy fix. Eventually, our group wants to tackle bigger issues, like the teen boredom and peer pressure that often lead teenagers to abuse drugs and alcohol."

The group is planning another Ghost Walk to kick off Drug Awareness Week, as well as other activities designed to get teens and adults talking about the problem and solving it together. You can learn more on their facebook page

Stop Selling Alcohol To Minors

SAN IGNACIO, Cayo, Saturday, July 7, 2012:

Nine teenagers who attend Sacred Heart College joined with nine American teens to participate in leadership and service learning training offered by a non-profit organization known as Round the World with Us (www.RTWwithUs.org)

“We learned to think for ourselves about our community, and what we can contribute to it,” says 14 year-old Camille.

Fifteen year-old Shereen explains more about the process, saying, “We took a close look at our community and saw many things that we love, like the closeness of our families and the way people take care of each other, and several things we’d like to help improve.”

“At first I was nervous about this entire training since it was my first time working with people that I had never met in my life. I was taking a risk, but over the last couple of weeks, I have become much more confident,” says 14 year-old Ilya.

Some of the issues the teenagers identified were the high school drop out rate, discrimination against females in education, and environmental issues. After days of brainstorming and debate, they settled on the issue they felt impacted them the most – easy access to drugs and alcohol and the dangers of using them.

The students used a brainstorming process called Design Thinking to come up with ideas for what they could do to improve this situation.

“The Design Thinking process was hard to do, but it was worth it because we wanted to come up with unique ideas that would have a real impact. I think if we keep working at it as a team, we will be able to do that,” says 15 year-old Emma

How easy is it for our teenagers to buy alcohol?

The teenagers also wanted to answer this question. They went to the police and asked permission to conduct an experiment. They would visit 7 local stores and a restaurant and try to buy alcohol. Please note that all teens in the program are under 18 years of age. Police Officer Jones spoke to the teens and told them that the police force is also very interested in stopping teen alcohol and drug abuse and encouraged them to go ahead with their experiment.

17 year-old Mario reports on the results, “All seven of the stores sold to our group of underage teens. I was surprised and sad to think that even the larger stores would do that. My personal opinion is that this should stop. I know a lot of students who drink because of the easy access. The time they spend drinking could be used learning or doing something useful. Most adults are mature enough to use alcohol responsibly, but a lot of kids are not and it leads to many problems in our community. I wish people from San Ignacio would pull together and put on their thinking caps on to figure out how we can stop local stores from selling alcohol to kids.”

The teenagers chose not to make the information public on which stores are selling to them...this time. They would prefer to try to partner with the stores first to see if they will stop selling to minors willingly.

“Our goal is not to get anyone into trouble. At this stage, we just want people to know how big of a problem this is. We have confidence that our community can pull together and solve this problem. We plan to ask the stores owners for their cooperation, and we are asking adults to do the same. If we make it clear that no one wants them to sell to minors, I think they might listen,” says 17 year-old Marcello.

These teens are serious about this issue. They are forming a club at Sacred Heart College to work year round on limiting access to alcohol, and teaching their peers how dangerous drugs can be. I don’t think this will be the last we hear from them!
