Security Guard Shoots San Ignacio Man

San Ignacio Town, Cayo, Sunday, June 2, 2013:

A man allegedly under the influence of alcohol was shot by the security guard posted at Roses Chinese Store and Restaurant in San Ignacio.

The police reports that on Sunday, June 2, 2013, at around 9:15 pm an emergency 911 call was received requesting police assistance at Roses Restaurant located on the George Price Highway on the western outskirts of San Ignacio Town. Upon arrival the police encountered a creole decent male person suffering from three gunshot wounds, one each to both legs just above both knees and the third to the upper arm.

The injured man was identified as Rupert Rowland, 24, Belizean laborer of a San Ignacio Town address. Rowland was placed in the police vehicle and rushed to the San Ignacio Community Hospital.

The investigation revealed that

Rowland arrived at the establishment allegedly under the influence of alcohol. He reportedly began harassing several customers as well as the security guard from Force Security Company.

In a statement to the police, the guard informed that on observing Rowland's behavior, he approached him at the entrance to the store and warned him of his behavior. Rowland reportedly became upset and allegedly began threatening to take the guard's life. The guard further alleges that, with his hand inside the pocket of the pants he was wearing, Rowland began to advance towards him.

The guard told the police that, fearing for his life, he pulled out his service firearm and fired three shots at the advancing man. Rowland was treated and released from the San Ignacio Community Hospital. He is currently recuperating at home while the matter is under investigation.

Step Father Convicted of Assaulting and Wounding Girl

San Ignacio Town, Cayo, Wednesday, June 5, 2013:

Seven months after he was charged and pled not guilty on aggravated assault of an indecent nature and wounding his step daughter, Rosabel Mancia was today found guilty of both charges and sent to jail.

The incident stems from an October 31, 2012 report made by the fifteen year old step daughter of the 35 year old Salvadoran convict of a Santa Cruz address in Santa Elena Town. The girl told the police that at around 10:30 one night five days prior to making the report, Mancia entered her room and punched her in the face while she was sitting on her bed. She told the police that since the incident she has been suffering from nose bleed.

At the time of the report the investigating officer took note of a bruise to the inside of the girl's upper lip and a light faded dark circle around the left eye. The girl further alleged that on October 27, 2012 at about 6:00 am that she was awoken by the stepfather inside her room pulling off the bed sheet with which she was covered and massaging her buttocks.

In terms of the injuries to the face, the x-ray showed a broken nose resulting in the injury being classified by the doctor as wounding. Mancia was consequently charged for aggravated assault of an indecent nature and wounding.

Following months of adjournments the trial began today in the San Ignacio Town courtroom of magistrate Narda Morgan. The accused was found guilty of both charges and sentenced to six concurrent months in jail. He will therefore spend only six months behind bars.

Is It Double Standards, Indiscipline or Just Plain Arrogance?

Contributed Article;

I am unable to say what happens in other parts of the country but in our community I can, with all authority, say that there certainly exist double standards in terms of law enforcement.

Is it actually double standards or is it really a display of indiscipline or maybe even utter contempt for those who supervise them or, heaven forbids, total incompetence on they part of those who supervise them?

The matter at hand is the enforcement of the law as it pertains to the wearing of helmet by motorcyclists.

The sighting of a traffic warden writing a traffic violation ticket as he stands beside a non-helmet wearing motorcyclist, is regularly seen.

Notwithstanding, policemen can be regularly seen speeding down the streets sans the legally required helmet.

“Is it actually double standards or is it really a display of indiscipline”

While the police violator might think that he looks cute breaking the law or his arrogance is such that he feels proud to be flaunting it in our faces, does these blatant breakers of the law not realize that law abiding citizens, which is the majority of us, sees them as nothing more than indiscipline individuals and rogue personalities hiding inside a policeman uniform.

Say what you might want about Chester Williams, I can guarantee you that this kind of bull would never happen under his watch.

Suspected Drunk Boy Crash In Front Of Police Station

STAR Newspaper

SAN IGNACIO TOWN, Cayo, Sunday, June 2, 2013:

Of all the places to crash, a 17 year boy, suspected to be drunk, drove the vehicle he was driving into the street light pole in front of the police station in San Ignacio.

At around 1:30 on the morning of Sunday, June 2, the policeman working the front desk inside the station heard a loud crashing noise and upon stepping out of the station he saw a vehicle crashed into the street light pole at the corner of Buena Vista Street and King Street.

Bleeding from an injury to the nose, sitting behind the steering wheel of the extensively damaged blue Toyota Tacoma truck, was a young male person with the strong aroma of alcohol on his breath. Sitting next to the driver was another male person also bleeding from injuries suspected to have been caused by glass particles from the shattered windshield.

The two injured male persons were removed from the vehicle and transported by the police to the San Ignacio Community Hospital where they were treated and released. The 17 year old boy, found in the driver's seat of the crashed vehicle, adamantly refused to provide the police with either a urine or blood specimen for testing to determine the level of alcohol content in the blood.

The minor was escorted to the police station where he was formally arrested and charged for driving without due care and attention and for the refusal to provide specimen.

The boy appeared before San Ignacio's magistrate Narda Morgan on Monday, June 3, 2013 where he pled not guilty to both charges. He was granted and met bail in the sum of one thousand dollars and ordered to return to court on Wednesday, September 18, 2013.

Taxi In The City

Three drunk guys entered a taxi. The taxi driver knew that they were drunk so he started the engine & turned it off again. Then said, "We have reached your destination". The 1st guy gave him money & the 2nd guy said "Thank you". The 3rd guy slapped the driver. The driver was shocked thinking the 3rd drunk knew what he did. But then he asked "What was that for?".
 The 3rd guy replied, "Control your speed next time, you nearly killed us!"

Off Key Birthday Singing

A couple phoned a neighbor to extend birthday greetings.
 They dialed the number and then sang "Happy Birthday" to him. But when they finished their off-key rendition, they discovered that they had dialed the wrong number.
 "Don't let it bother you," said the stranger on the phone, "you folks need all the practice you can get."

Polite Bobbie

Little Bobbie, while at a neighbor's, was given a piece of bread and butter, and politely said "Thank you."
 "That's right, Bobbie," said the lady. "I like to hear little boys say 'thank you'."
 "Well," rejoined Bobbie. "If you want to hear me say it again you might put some darn jam on it."

 For I am not there
 My spirit is free
 I am everywhere
 In the air that you breathe
 In the sound that you hear
 Don't cry for me Dad
 My spirit is near
 I'll watch over you
 From the other side
 Here in God's arms
 Safe along his side
 Smile at my memory
 Remember in your heart
 This is not the end
 It's a brand new start
